Field codes are highlighted in amber where: - field is left blank; or - field is equal to "Unconfirmed"; or - field has errors in format.
N62	ST5529	M	Soundness of the underwriting standards (ordinary course of business) explanation	The Seller has represented that each receivable was originated in the ordinary course of its business in accordance with its revolving credit guidelines (see section of the base prospectus entitled "Sale and Purchase of the Receivables", sub-section entitled "Eligibility Criteria") and the definition of "Eligibility Criteria"). The Seller has undertaken to the Compartment that it will notify it (and the Compartment shall in turn inform without undue delay the investors and any potential investors of the same) without undue delay and the relevant rating agencies of any material amendment to its revolving credit guidelines pursuant to which the receivables have been originated together with an explanation accounting for such amendment. The Seller has also represented that it has applied to the receivables which will be transferred by it to the Compartment the same sound and well-defined criteria for credit-granting which it applies to non-securitised receivables. To that end, the same clearly established processes for approving and, where relevant, amending, renewing and refinancing credits have been applied. It has effective systems in place to apply those criteria and processes in order to ensure that credit-granting is based on a thorough assessment of the underlying borrower's creditworthiness taking appropriate account of factors relevant to verifying the soundness of such underwriting standards.	(TEXT-32767)	Confirmation and detailed explanation as to whether the underlying exposures were originated in the lender's ordinary course of business and whether the applied underwriting standards were no less stringent than those applied at the same time of origination to exposures that were not securitised pursuant to Article 20(10) of Regulation (EU) 2017/2402.
